

2010 Nightingale Scholarship Winners

This year, through a grant from the NM Board of Nursing, we were able to award each of these outstanding students a $2,000 scholarship to assist in the furthering of their nursing education.

PRACTICAL NURSING

Roy Koehn

Luna Community College, Las Vegas

Katie Kolosovsky

Luna Community College, Las Vegas

Robin Pilley

Luna Community College, Las Vegas

ASSOCIATE DEGREE IN NURSING

Catherine Perez

Luna Community College, Las Vegas

Christine Vega

New Mexico State University, Carlsbad

Denise Lovett

Northern New Mexico College, Espanola

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN NURSING

Kristen Hanrahan

University of New Mexico School of Nursing

Heather Lauritzen

University of New Mexico School of Nursing

Glenda Allies-Fox

Jacksonville University School of Nursing (online)
(works at San Juan Regional Medical Center, Farmington)

GRADUATE DEGREE IN NURSING

Anneliese Castillo

(working towards Master of Science)

New Mexico State University, Las Cruces

Andrea Zurawski

(working towards Master of Science)

University of New Mexico School of Nursing

James Rayl

(working towards Advanced Practice degree)

University of New Mexico School of Nursing

HOME AND HOSPICE

Noemi Jauregui

Luna Community College, Las Vegas

*($1,000 awarded by the NM Assoc. for Home & Hospice Care,
$1,000 matching award from NMBON grant)*

"I have waited many years to achieve this dream."

"It is a true blessing that I will never forget."

"Thank you for supporting me in my endeavors to promote public service with health care education."

"In addition to the financial support, I thank you for supporting my passion for patient education."

"It is my hope that during my future nursing career, I will depict the values and knowledge that I gain each day. In nursing school Thanks to your generosity, I can continue to learn and grow as a student nurse."

"I have wanted to be a nurse since I was 6 years old and I have followed that dream since 1070. I have loved every minute of my career"

